

Inducted into the Florida Water Ski Federation Hall of Fame 2009

Donna Switzer of Mulberry is a former member of the Lakeland Water Ski Club. She and her husband, Stan, moved to Tampa from Kansas in 1968. In 1990 they along with Richard and Ruth Johnston, purchased the property in Mulberry Fla., known today as Ski Paradise. Her contributions to the sport as a competitor and official have been very significant over the years. She has served as chief judge of the Southern Regionals and the Masters. She has served as judge at the U.S. Open, Masters, and Water Ski World Championships. She is a former AWSA Officials Committee member and Chair. She has been a recipient the Tommy Dorwin National Judges award. She continues to compete at the regional and national level and remains very active in many areas of the sport.