

Inducted into the Florida Water Ski Federation Hall of Fame 2009

Frances Woofenden of West Palm Beach learned to ski at the age of 50, when her husband Stewart bought a water ski boat. She has been a member of the Ski Club of the Palm Beaches for over 35 years. She has participated as a show skier at the club's Lake Osborn site and tournament skier at Okeeheelee Park during this time. She has been featured on local television many times in news stories and promoting the Ski Club of the Palm Beaches events. She has been featured in several national television advertisements over the years, the most recent for V-8 Juices. She is a worker bee at all of the local, State, Regional, and National tournaments at Lake Osborn and Okeeheelee Park hosted by the Ski Club of the Palm Beaches. She has won over 100 medals in local, Regional, and National tournaments and continues to participate in the sport that she loves.
