

Mike Botti:

Botti is credited with advancing barefoot water skiing skills toward those of the Australians in the 1970s. He pioneered the upright stance for surface turns and is credited with being the first in the world to do wake turns, a wake 360 and a ½-wrap.